

June 14 Announcements

Good morning! Grace, Mercy, and peace in the name of Jesus Christ our Risen Lord. Welcome to worship at Mount Vernon Presbyterian Church. We want to welcome all who normally worship with us as well as those of you finding us for the first time. Please reach out to us if you would like to connect, reconnect, or feel more connected during this season in which we are called to be apart.

I want to share with you that over the last three months I have tried to call every household affiliated with the church. I have spoken to many of you, and left messages for those I haven't. If we have not connected, please feel free to reach out to me. My email is found under the staff page on our church website and I look forward to connecting with you.

As most of you know, we continue to heed guidance from health and church officials regarding a date to return to in-person worship. Right now, we have no fixed date to return and are still in the process of putting together procedures and protocols that will allow us to return safely and celebrate the life that we find in and through Jesus Christ.

Several events continue happening in the life of the church. Next Sunday, we will celebrate worship with our brothers and sisters from Los Ninos Primero, a ministry founded by this church 20 years ago. We hope you will join us at 11am, and then after you celebrate Father's Day with the Dad's in your life, bring your pets and bring food items up to the church. We will hold our 2nd CAC Food Drive (the first one was a big success) along with an opportunity to walk through the newly updated Gailey Hall. Afterward we will do a drive-by Blessing of the Pets, so bring your animals for a brief prayer and celebration of the love that we find through them.

We also have a special update on our Family Promise Ministry courtesy of church member Moira Speirs...(Go to Moira's FP clip)

Thank you, Moira...

We also want to let you know that going forward, we will be sending out emails the day of events so you can more efficiently connect with us virtually. So to connect with our Presbyterian 101 Sunday School Class (which you can still do), or our Phone Devotionals on Tuesdays, or even our once a month Taize services, we will send you the Zoom link the day of so you can access these opportunities much more easily.

We also want to thank you for your continued stewardship of our church. Your Finance and Administration Team is so thankful for the support you have shown at this uncertain time. We are also overwhelmed by how generously you have given to our Covid-19 fund. To date, we have received $40K in funds and dispersed $23K to our various mission partners. If you would like to give to either of these funds, simply go to the giving tab on our website or feel free to send checks via postal mail.

Finally, we ask that you remain in prayer for our world and our country. Let us continue to lift up those hurt by racial and systemic injustice and let us together move toward a more harmonious future. We also pray for fellow church members including Inez Cole (recovering from a broken hip), Helen Johnson, and Dave Whitacre. We also pray for those who are unnamed but are suffering various afflictions at this time.

Let us now turn these concerns, these praises, and these hopes to God as we prepare our hearts for worship...

MOUNT VERNON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Second Sunday After Pentecost
June 14, 2020 – 11:00 a.m.

Opening Words

“Turn! Turn! Turn!” (To Everything There is a Season)

To everything (turn, turn, turn)
There is a season (turn, turn, turn)
And a time to every purpose, under heaven
A time to be born, a time to die
A time to plant, a time to reap
A time to kill, a time to heal
A time to laugh, a time to weep

To everything (turn, turn, turn)
There is a season (turn, turn, turn)
And a time to every purpose, under heaven
A time to build up, a time to break down
A time to dance, a time to mourn
A time to cast away stones, a time to gather stones together

To everything (turn, turn, turn)
There is a season (turn, turn, turn)
And a time to every purpose, under heaven
A time of love, a time of hate
A time of war, a time of peace
A time you may embrace, a time to refrain from embracing

To everything (turn, turn, turn)
There is a season (turn, turn, turn)
And a time to every purpose, under heaven
A time to gain, a time to lose
A time to rend, a time to sew

A time for love, a time for hate
A time for peace, I swear it's not too late

Greetings and Welcome

Prayer of Invocation

Call to Worship and Sam Nelson

Andy, Heidi, Jack,

Let us start this service well, by reminding ourselves: That it is not we who chose Christ,
but Christ who chose us,
That we are not here because of our goodness
but because of Christ's grace,
That we are not here to enlighten ourselves,
but to allow Christ to enlighten us,
That we have not come to be entertained but to worship God with heart, soul, mind and strength.

Hymn #2236

"Gather Us In"

Here in this place new light is streaming
Now is the darkness vanished away
See in this space our fears and our dreamings
Brought here to you in the light of this day
Gather us in, the lost and forsaken
Gather us in, the blind and the lame
Call to us now and we shall awaken
We shall arise at the sound of our name

We are the young, our lives are a mystery
We are the old who yearn for your face
We have been sung throughout all of history
Called to be light to the whole human race
Gather us in, the rich and the haughty
Gather us in, the proud and the strong
Give us a heart so meek and so lowly
Give us the courage to enter the song

Here we will take the wine and the water
Here we will take the bread of new birth
Here you shall call your sons and your daughters
Call us anew to be salt for the earth
Give us to drink the wine of compassion

Give us to eat the bread that is you
Nourish us well and teach us to fashion
Lives that are holy and hearts that are true

Not in the dark of buildings confining
Not in some heaven light years away
But here in this place the new light is shining
Now is the kingdom, now is the day
Gather us in and hold us forever
Gather us in and make us your own
Gather us in, all peoples together
Fire of love in our flesh and our bones
Fire of love in our flesh and our bones

Prayer of Confession

God of praise and God of groans, you call us to hear—really hear—amid the noise

to risk being open to another perspective amid the impacted certainties to be able to listen to impassioned pleas while owning the cries that come from our own hearts.

To hear an argument that does not resonate disagree, if that be our call, without demeaning the bearer of the words.

Amid the colliding words injured by the words injuring with our words:

help us to hear your Words...(Silent Confession)...

Assurance of Pardon

One: ...Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

All: In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Scripture

Matthew 9:35–10:8

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!

Hymn #307

"Fight the Good Fight"

Fight the good fight with all thy might;
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek Christ's face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Cast care aside, lean on thy guide;
God's boundless mercy will provide;
Trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not nor fear, God's arms are near;
God changeth not, and thou art dear;
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

Prayers of the People

*After each petition, Pastor will say "Lord, In Your Mercy."
Congregation will respond with "Hear Our Prayer."*

Lord's Prayer

Our father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory , forever. Amen.

"How Great is Our God"

The splendor of the King
Clothed in majesty
Let all the earth rejoice
All the earth rejoice

He wraps Himself in light
And darkness tries to hide
And trembles at His voice
And trembles at His voice

How great is our God
How great is our God
And all will see how great
How great is our God

Benediction
